For an optimal experience throughout the year, we are thrilled to offer a range of new options that combine our three signature programs, each designed to highlight the unique features of every season.

During the vibrant summer months of November and December, we invite you to spend more days at our lodge. This is the prime season for dragonflies, offering a captivating natural spectacle that complements the warm, inviting weather. Immerse yourself in the beauty of our surroundings and take full advantage of the outdoor activities available during this peak time.

As the season progresses and the dragonflies start to disappear, the months of February, March & April become perfect for a different kind of adventure. This period is ideal for blending our programs, whether you choose to indulge in fishing at our deluxe camp or explore our uncharted lodge. These months offer a cozy, enriching escape, allowing you to experience the tranquility and charm of the changing landscape.

Tailoring your choices to the season ensures that you experience the best of what each time of year has to offer. Whether it's the vibrant life of summer or the serene calm of the cooler months, our programs are designed to provide a seamless and enriching experience.

In all of these options, you will be provided with the exceptional Rio Manso service. Our commitment to human values and the high-quality experience you are accustomed to at our main lodge ensures that every visit is memorable and fulfilling.

Discover the perfect seasonal experience with us, where every moment is crafted to offer the ultimate in relaxation, adventure, and personalized service. Let us guide you through the best of each season, creating unforgettable memories all year round.
